

RECAP 2022:
THE YEAR OF OPPORTUNITY

A YEAR UNLIKE ANY OTHER

TBM has been busier than ever before in recent years, but TBM volunteers took that to the next level in 2022. They responded to more disasters in the first six months of the year than they did in all of 2021.

God's call led them to deliver help, hope and healing on six continents, responding to fires, tornadoes, a hurricane and the crisis created by the invasion of Ukraine.

Thanks to your support, TBM volunteers met the needs of and shared God's love with hundreds of thousands of people.

Your prayer and financial support made an impact around the globe.

Disaster RELIEF

'GOD'S VEHICLES. THAT'S GOD COMING
RIGHT THERE. I SEE THOSE VEHICLES, I
SEE GOD COMING TO HELP US.'

When disaster survivors see TBM trucks coming down their street, they know help is on the way. More so, they know God is sending people who care about them.

"God's vehicles," Larry said as a TBM team arrived at his Dallas-area home after it flooded. "That's God coming right there. I see those vehicles, I see God coming to help us."

TBM volunteers worked for days removing wet drywall, flooring and furniture. Shortly after, they returned to rebuild the man's home, making it safe and secure again. As they worked, they led him to faith in Christ.

In 2022, TBM Disaster Relief volunteers served more than 72,000 hours after:

- 3 Floods
- 5 Texas wildfires
- 6 Texas tornados
- 1 Windstorm
- Hurricane Ian
- A shooting at Robb Elementary School in Uvalde

International RELIEF

'I SEE TEARS IN THEIR EYES. I SEE THE FEAR FOR THEIR FAMILY THEY LEFT BEHIND. BUT I ALSO SEE HOW MUCH THEY FEEL SECURE HERE.'

With little more than the clothes on their back, thousands of Ukrainian women and children wait hours in line to cross into Poland as part of the largest movement of people in Europe since World War II. They shuffle their feet quietly, even apprehensively, toward an unknown future in an unfamiliar country.

They're shocked by what they find. Their home country has been invaded. Their homes have been destroyed. But Polish Baptist churches are greeting them with open arms with the help of their Texas friends.

Within days of Russia invading Ukraine, TBM leaders were serving on the ground in Poland as more than 3.5 million people fled into the country. Almost overnight, churches were turned into shelters. Warehouses became distribution centers. God's love abounded.

"I see dread in their faces," Natasha said as she led a shelter. "I see their pain. I see tears in their eyes. I see the fear for their family they left behind. But I also see how much they feel secure here. When I hug them, they shiver with the happiness of being safe."

Water IMPACT

'BECAUSE YOU GIVE THEM WATER, THEY'RE WILLING TO LISTEN TO YOUR MESSAGE.'

In a small, rural village in Ghana, a preacher's words echo across a field filled with people. For days, villagers watched as a new water well was drilled and installed. For the first time in their lives, the entire village would have clean drinking water.

As the preacher dedicated the well, he celebrated the effort. And he shared about the life-changing love of Christ, who made the well possible through TBM Water Impact. At the end of the time together, several hands shot up when the preacher asked if anyone would like to commit their lives to Christ.

"Because you give them water, they're willing to listen to your message," said Pastor Moses in Ghana.

In 2022, TBM Water Impact provided clean water in:

- Kenya
- Ghana
- Uganda
- Peru
- Papua New Guinea
- Venezuela
- Sierra Leone
- South Sudan

Church MISSIONS

'THIS IS THE BEST CHRISTMAS PRESENT I'VE EVER RECEIVED.'

A nice, neat bed doesn't excite a lot of people. But when you're a child who has never had a bed, it's the best Christmas present ever.

A TBM mission team helped literally elevate children in financially struggling families living in unincorporated colonias in the Rio Grande Valley. They built beds and gave them away during the days leading up to Christmas. Most of the children were sleeping on the ground and fighting over blankets before the TBM team provided beds, mattresses, sheets and pillows.

"This is the best Christmas present I've ever received," an elementary-age girl told the team upon seeing her bed for the first time.

Whether they want to serve far from home or on their campuses, churches are finding ways to share God's love through TBM ministries. Congregations participated through mission trips to Texas, Honduras and Peru, while others put together First Step Kits and Messages of Hope to help people after disasters.

TBM BUILDERS

'TBM IS ALL ABOUT ADVANCING THE KINGDOM OF GOD. TO ME THAT IS SOMETHING THAT ANY BELIEVER CAN GET BEHIND AND SUPPORT.'

A meaningful retirement is how Tony Tarpley, a former manufacturing engineer for Bell Helicopter and woodworking hobbyist, envisioned his life following his career. When he discovered an opportunity with TBM Cabinet Builders to use his skills and passions to help ministries spread the Gospel, he knew he had to try it.

“TBM is all about advancing the kingdom of God,” he said. “To me, that is something that any believer can get behind and support. I have the time and energy to give and a little bit of skill or talent, so that’s why I do it.”

Working at camps and churches across Texas, in Arkansas and even Paraguay, TBM Builders helped ministries expand as they followed God's will to reach more people for the Lord. In many instances, TBM Builders provided the only way for churches and camps to afford to remodel or expand facilities.

“It’s a good way of serving,” Tarpley explained. “It’s all about spreading the Gospel. Whatever you’re doing, even in the background, you’re showing the love of God.”

TBM DISCIPLESHIP

'WE PARTNERED WITH TBM TO HELP CREATE AWARENESS ABOUT LOSTNESS IN OUR WORLD HERE, NEAR & FAR. OUR SIGN-UPS FOR THESE EXPERIENCES WERE FILLED ALL SUMMER.'

Changing the world around us begins with Christ changing each of us on the inside.

Through youth events, Royal Ambassador summer camps, Campout and Missions Mania, curriculum offerings and TBM Interactive events, TBM is creating opportunities for Christ to transform the lives of young people across Texas and beyond.

TBM Interactive is an Escape Room-style experience that teaches students about how God is working around the world through TBM ministries. As students unlock puzzles and complete games, they learn how they can engage in what God is doing.

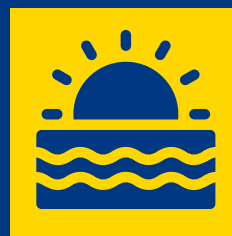

"We partnered with TBM to help create awareness about lostness in our world here, near and far," said Brian Baldwin, youth missions and evangelism specialist for Oklahoma Baptists. "Our sign-ups for these experiences were filled all summer with groups wanting to participate. Students had a blast and were encouraged to engage in the Great Commission. TBM Interactive set us up for a huge win!"
